

The National Junior Honor Society is a nationwide organization for middle school students that recognizes those who show excellence in scholarship, leadership, service, citizenship, and character. Students are usually invited to apply based on their academic achievement, but membership also requires demonstrating qualities like responsibility, respect for others, and a willingness to serve the community.

Once accepted, members often participate in service projects, leadership opportunities, and activities that benefit both their school and the local community.

☀️ NJHS Applications Are OPEN! ☀️

National Junior Honor Society (NJHS) is now accepting applications! If you were on the Gold or Blue Honor Roll last year and want to get involved in meaningful service projects like food drives, nursing home outreach, campus clean-ups, and more – this is your chance!

✅ Already a member? No need to reapply.

Deadline to apply: Friday, Sept. 19

📍 Must attend quarterly meetings & participate in at least one service project
